The points for consideration in this case are

(1) Whether in accordance with the Govt of 5.2.1889, the pension drawn by AK Kaja-mamni should descend to Veera chickaray-ru, in full or subject to any alteration at the discretion of Govt.

(2) Whether the 2 brothers of Veera chickaray-ru, or the other relatives did have any other share in the said pension. Or

The pension of AK Kajamanmani is one of those marked to in the Khazana book Statement as on 31st May 1870. to lapse on the demise of the barawardar for want of lineal heirs in the male line - in accordance with the old ruling referred to in para 6 of Govt of 29.10.87. In that order however Govt communicated a liberal policy in the matter of continuing pallya pensions in favour of adopted sons, and Govt having recognised the adoption of chickaray as father of the present claimant Veerachickaryan and expressly declared the latter as entitled to succeed to the pension on

28) The next question is as to who is entitled to the pension at present. In the Fo. of 5th Feby 1884 the adoption of Chikanayar (father of petrs) was recognised in pursuance of the policy laid down in 1887. Under the operation of ordinary rule of Hindu Law the adoption would at once have had the effect of vesting the pension in the adopted son, but on certain considerations the Govt stayed the operation of the law and directed the continuance of the pension to Akkajammanni (the adoptive mother) during her lifetime & directed that after her death the pension should descend to Chikaveeranayar - the eldest son of the adopted son - who was married to the natural born granddaughter of Akkajammanni.

1) The stipend of Akkaji Ammanni was specially declared in the authoritative list of 31.5.1870 as one "to lapse on demise" of the recepient.

2) On her special representation, it was afterwards ordered that the stipend would descend to a particular nominee of hers.

Her adoption was not recognized for the purpose of descent of her pension in ordinary course. The adopted son was to have no right in it nor his sons other than the one who married her granddaughter.

In fact as a special favour to her a life-stipend was allowed to descend to a special nominee other than her adopted son.

Cases of succession to Collegate pensions involve both legal and quasi-political considerations. While succession is as a rule ~~governed~~ by Hindu Law principles, the State has a right to regulate the mode of succession in disputed cases. Adoption is permitted, but it must be made from the next of kin and with the previous sanction of Government. The former has also the right to divide a pension in such proportion as it thinks fit among several persons, and to diminish the amount of pension when renewing it in any case.

If these principles are borne in mind, cases like the present need not present any undue difficulty.

Too much is made in the Financial Secretary's note of the fact that the stipend given to the Anekal Collegate was shown in the Khazana Book's Statement of 1870 as one liable to lapse on the demise of the then holder. That was simply due to the circumstance that the holder, the late Akkajiammanni, was a widow who had no male issue of her body

But after the change of pol announced in the Govt Order of 29 Oct 1887, and the recognition, in a cordance with the new policy, of th adoption of Chikkaraya by Akka ammanni, the position was entire changed. Subsequent Statements Khazana Bakhis (see, for instanc the one for 1914) no longer show th pension in question as a non-here stipend.

The hereditary character of t stipend is in no way affected the reservations made by Govern in their Order of 5-2-1889 when recog nising the above adoption. An adoption by a Hindu widow has, as rule, the consequence that it imm diately divests her of her estate; bu in this instance Govt said that the enjoyment of the pension by Akkaji ammanni should not be disturbed during her life-time. The also laid down that after her death the pension should descend not to the adopted son himself to his eldest son Veerachikkaraya whom it was proposed to marry to the Ds lady's grand-daughter. Subject to these conditions, the adopt had the effect which it was intend to have, and which every valid adoption has ordinarily under Hin Law, of continuing the line of heir which would otherwise become extin

Nothing that has happened since affects the position, either. What Government said* when the matter came up in 1912 on the petition of Akkayiammanni and her grand-daughter was that "the question revising the order of 1889 in rega to the devolution of the pension can be considered when the pensionary allowance falls vacant." There w no question at all, either then or when the matter was re-agitated in 1914#, of the pension lapsing for want of legal heirs, and no idea in contem plation of its being resumed by Government; but merely a ques of regulating the devolution of the pens when the succession should open on the death of the then holder.

It would not be either right or politically expedient for the State to take advantage of Akkajiammanni's death to resume the stipend in its entirety. We should hardly be giving its due effect to the "liberal policy" of 1887 by doing so. The line of reasoning which was revived by Chikkaraya's adoption has not in any wise become extinct thereafter, and the only question that has now to be considered by Government is, How should the pension be allotted, that is, to whom and with what deductions if any?

The main anxiety of Akkaji-ammanni all along was that the pension should ensure for the benefit of her granddaughter Hiriyammanni and her issue; and with this feeling the Government of the day evidently sympathised to a large extent. Hiriyammanni too is since dead without having any children of her own, her husband Veerachikkaraya has children by another wife, but that is a different matter. The records (even those produced by the Veerachikharaya himself) leave little room for doubt that Hiriyamma was ill-treated by her husband and that the marriage was on the whole an unhappy one.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

I therefore agree with the Chief Secretary that Veerachikharaya is no longer entitled to any special consideration by the reason of his brothers, and that the pension should be divided equally among the surviving sons of the deceased Chikkharaya (the original assessee son).

It seems to me, at the same time, that the circumstances are such as to warrant a material reduction in the aggregate amount of the pension. But perhaps, on division into three shares will operate to reduce the portion falling to each to one-third of Rs 222-6-10, it may be sufficient to make a nominal reduction, say to Rs 210, or to Rs 180, so as to give each sharer Rs 70 or Rs 60, as the case may be. This will also serve to emphasise the fact of the Government to reduce the amount of a pension

NOTE.—Cotn. Sheet.

Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying papers relate to the disposal of the Pollegar pension of Rs.222-6-10 drawn by the late Akkajammanni of the Anekal Pallegar Family who died on 2nd October 1918.

2. The claimants to the pension are (1) Veera Chicka Royar, the eldest son of Chicka Royar --the adopted son of th late Akkajammanni, and (2) his two younger brothers, viz., Nanja Royar and Puttuswami Royar, and they have severally petitioned to Government urging their claims.

3. The facts of the case briefly are as follows:-

In the order of 5th February 1889, the adoption of Chick Royar (father of the petitioners) by Akkajammanni was recognised by Government in pursuance of the liberal policy laid down in their Order of 1887; the pension was, however, conti nued to Akkajammanni (the adoptive mother) during her lifetime, and it was declared that after her death it should descend to Chickaveera Royar, the eldest son of the adopted son to whom it was proposed to marry Hiriyammanni, the granddaughter of Akkajammanni. For reasons alleged in the several memorials addressed to His Highness, the late Akkajammanı requested Government to modify the Order of 5th February 188 in favour of her daughter Malligammanni and of her granddaughter, Hiriyammanni, and after an enquiry into Akkajjamma nni's prayer as directed by His Highness, it was decided tha the question of the devolution of the pension would best be considered only after her death.

4. In reporting upon the relative claims of the petitioners, the Comptroller, for reasons recorded in his letter of 21st April 1919, recommended that the pension should lapse Government. The Financial Secretary, Mr.Chakravarti, agre in this view.

Pages 8 to 11 of office Note

The Chief Secretary, Mr.C.S.Balasundaram Iyer, in his note dated 2nd June 1919 suggested that the vacant pension be divided equally between the three brothers named above. The First Member of Council, Mr.K.S.Chandrasekhara Iyer, concurred with the Chief Secretary.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the following report as called for in your No.Fl.3084/S & A 42-18 dated 23rd December 1918 forwarding the petition of Nanja Rayaru and Puttaswami Rayaru representing their claims to the pension of Rs.222-6-10 drawn by the late Akkajammanni of the Anekal Pollegar family.

2. The petitioners are the younger brothers of Veera Chicka Rayaru who has applied to the State Huzur Treasury Officer for the grant of the whole pension of Rs.222-6-10 to himself on the strengt of Government Order No.6925-6/667 dated 5th February 89. The claimants to the pension are therefore ~~those~~ three ~~that~~ brothers who are the sons of Chick Rayaru whose adoption by Akkajammanni was recognized by Government in their order No.6925-6/667 dated 5th February 89. Chick Rayaru has another son called Shankara Rayaru who is no longer alive but has left three minor daughters who are under the protection of the two brothers Nanja Rayaru and Puttaswami Rayaru.

3. I invite reference to Government Order No.6925-6/667 dat 5th February 89 in which the object of the adoption recognised by Government as also the person to whom the pension was proposed to be continued on the death of Akkajammanni are clearly stated. It was the desire of Akkajammanni that her grand daughter Hiriyammanni should receive the benefit of the pension. She accordingly proposed that Hiriyammanni should be married to Veera Chicka Rayaru the eldest son of Chick Rayaru whom she proposed to adopt, so that Veera Chicka Rayaru and Hiriyammanni may stand in the relation of cousins who could marry and that her pension should after her death be transferred to Veera Chicka Rayaru for the benefit of her grand daughter Hiriyammanni and of her issue if any. In this order recognising the adoption of Chick Rayaru it was distinctly stated that the pension of Akkajammanni would on her death be transferred only to his eldest son Veera Chick Rayaru because he was the husband of Hiriyammanni and the other sons of Chick Rayaru were not given any interest in the pension. As it was not intended that the other sons of Chick Rayaru should get any share of the pension, I do not think it is necessary to consider the claims of petitioners Nanja Rayaru and Puttaswami Rayaru or of the minor daughters of their deceased brother Shankara Rayaru. The only claim now to be considered is that of Veera Chick Rayaru. As regards this, I would invite reference to Government Order No.Fl.4277/S & A 255-11-2 dated 8th April 1912. This order was passed on the representation of both Akkajammanni and Hiriyammanni. The former apparently found that her kindness to Veera Chick Rayaru had been abused by him and she accordingly prayed to Government that her pensio which accordingly to her representation had been ordered to be transferred to him on her death should not be so transferred to him. Government, however, did not pass final orders on this representation and they directed that the matter would receive consideration when the pension actually fell vacant on her death. The petition to Government of Akkajammanni and Hiriyammanni on which these orders were passed may throw more light on the matter. As stated above the recognition of adoption and the assurance to transfer the pension to Veera Chick Rayaru were both to satisfy the desire of Akkajammanni to provide for her grand daughter Hiriyammanni. In this object she was disappointed and she had therefore to request Government to cancel their order No. 6925-6/667 dated 5th February 89. Veera Chick Rayaru is reported to have forsaken his wife Hiriyammanni and married a second wife. Hiriyammanni is also reported to be dead and to have left no issue

The object of Akkajammanni and of the Government Order No. 6925-6/667 dated 5th February 89 having failed, I do not think it is necessary to continue the pension to Veera Chick Rayaru. I may add that the pension of Akkajammanni is one of those that should lapse on her death as noted in the printed statement of pensioners on 31st May 1870 prepared by the late Mr. Sethu Rao, the Khazana Bhakshi at the time. The petition of Nanja Rayaru and Puttaswami Rayaru is herewith returned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M S Ramachandra Rao

Comptroller.

PETITIONER .....Veera Chikka Rayaru

of Anekal.

Subject:- Re the succession to a monthly political pension of Rs 222-6-10 from the Government of Mysore granted to Rani Akkajammanni of Anekal who is now deceased.

This is an explanation to be offered to a query put by the State Huzur Treasury Officer, Bangalore, whether there was any ill-treatment to Rani Hiriammanni by her husband (the present petitioner) Veera Chikka Rayaru of Anekal as alleged by Rani Akkajammanni in her memorials to the Government which are supposed to have been addressed by the said Rani Akkajammanni in the years 1911-13, as the petitioner was not in possession of his documentary evidence at the time of the said query.

The Government in their Proceedings No. 6925-6/667 dated the 5th February 1889, were pleased to state definitely, inter alia, that after the death of Rani Akkajammanni, the pension should descend to the petitioner who is the grandson of the said Rani Akkajammanni and to whom it was proposed to marry Rani Akkajammanni's daughter's daughter.

The petitioner humbly begs to state that Rani Malli-gammanni, mother of Rani Hiriammanni (the petitioner's wife) proposed to marry, much against the will of Rani Akkajammanni (mother of the said Rani Malligammanni), the said Rani Hiri-ammanni to Sugunda Raja of Agalvadi in the year 1891-92 and accordingly the betrothel ceremony was celebrated, Rani Akkajammanni having been disappointed in her wishes to marry her grand-daughter, Rani Hiriammanni of Shulagiri, Salem District, to the present petitioner in accordance with the spirit of the abovenamed Government Proceedings, arranged for a betrothel with one Rani Mahadevammanni, daughter of Raja Sugutur Mommadi Sankara Royal Yesvantha Bahadur of Poonganur Samasthanam, and the betrothel ceremony was per-formed.

Later on, dissensions arose between the Pallegar families of Shulagiri and Agalvadi, and in consequence the betrothel of Rani Hiriammanni with the said Suganda Raja was broken off As a result of this, Rani Hiriammanni of Shulagiri, was after wafds proposed for the second time to the present petitioner whose grand-mother Rani Akkajammanni broke off the betrothel of the Poonganur Pallegar family with the petitioner. Where-upon the disappointed Poonganur Raja filed a petition to the Sub-Collector of the Salem District, not to sanction the alliance of the petitioner with Rani Hiriammanni of Shulagiri - Vide Exhibit A, the petition and Exhibit B, the order of the Madras Government.

In the year 1894 the petitioner's marriage with Rani Hiriammanni was celebrated at Shulagiri. In 1895, Rani Lingarajammanni, the eldest daughter of Rani Malligammanni, who had been married to one of the Pallegars of Agalvadi Samasthanam died. Whereupon Rani Malligammanni owing to this sad bereavement proposed that Rani Hiriammanni, wife of the petitioner, should stay with her for a time. Accordingly the petitioner sent his wife, Rani Hiriammanni who was pregnant at the time, to Shulagiri to stay with her mother with a view to mitigate her pangs of grief by her constant consolation. After a reasonable length of time the petitioner requested his mother-in-law to send back his wife from Shulagiri to which Rani Malligammanni did not pay any heed, but promised to send her daughter after delivery - vide Exhibit C in her own handwriting. Much against the will of the petitioner, the petitioner's wife was taken by her mother to Poonganur where she had a miscarriage in consequence of a long and tedious journey. Thereupon the petitioner became very much depressed and brought back his wife by force.

Thereupon Rani Malligammanni preferred a complaint petition to the District Magistrate of Salem, before whom Rani Hiriammanni, while being examined as a prosecution witness admitted during her cross-examination that she was not ill-treated by the petitioner as was also admitted by her before the Sub-Collector of Salem who had been deputed to go to Anekal and make personal enquiries into the matter of the alleged ill-treatment - vide Exhibit D.

Rani Malligammanni, being frustrated in her attempts to take back her daughter Rani Hiriammanni (the petitioner's wife), preferred another complaint (Criminal Case No. 37 of 1897-98) before the 2nd General Assistant Commissioner and First Class Magistrate of Bangalore, against the petitioner for the alleged ill-treatment of Rani Hiriammanni who was living then with the petitioner and her grand-mother Rani Akkajammanni at Anekal, when the said Rani Akkajammanni being examined as a prosecution witness admitted that both Rani Hiriammanni and the petitioner were living under her protection, that the petitioner did not ill-treat his wife Rani

Hiriammanni

Hiriammanni as alleged by her daughter Rani Malligammanni, and that they were living together as husband and wife most amicably -vide Exhibit E, (the deposition of the said Rani Akkajammanni in the aforesaid First Class Magistrate's Court,) ~~for a fresh copy of which~~ An application for a fresh copy was quite recently presented to the said court and the same will be submitted soon after its receipt, the first copy having been lost quite recently at the premises of the Huzur State Treasury Office Building.

Before the petitioner's discharge and while the case was pending its final disposal, the Magistrate directed on the 26th March 1898 that Rani Hiriammanni should remain under the custody of her mother Rani Malligammanni and that she should furnish a security of Ruppes fifty in order to produce her daughter Rani Hiriammanni whenever there was a call from the court. Against this order of security, Rani Malligammanni preferred a Revision Petition to the Chief Court of Mysore to set aside the order of security which was ultimately set aside - vide Exhibit F.

Ever since the order of the 2nd General Assistant Commissioner and First Class Magistrate of Bangalore dated the 26th March 1898 as aforesaid the petitioner's wife, Rani Hiriammanni, had been living under the protection of her mother Rani Malligammanni at Shulagiri and elsewhere while the petitioner and his grandmother Rani Akkajammanni were living at Anekal. But Rani Akkajammanni was in the habit of visiting her daughter's place off and on to see both the daughter and the grand-daughter.

The petitioner's grandmother Rani Akkajammanni after waiting for long 8 years and seeing the obstinate nature of her daughter (Rani Malligammanni) brought about the second marriage of the petitioner with Rani Lakshmi-devammanni of Tyaranadurga in the Salem District.

As the circumstances stood as narrated above, it can be clearly seen that there was no occasion for the petitioner to ill-treat his wife as she was living with her mother until her mother's death in December 1914, i.e., that Rani Hiriammanni was in the custody of her mother from the 26th March 1898, the date of the Magistrate's order to December 1914. And even if Rani Hiriammanni had stated that she was ill-treated by the petitioner, such statements must have been made just to please her mother Rani Malligammanni while she was under her persuasions.

The memorials to the Government which are supposed to have been addressed by Rani Akkajammanni in the years 1911-13 are, as can be seen, utterly groundless because Rani Akkajammanni in her deposition before the 2nd General Assistant Commissioner and First Class Magistrate as shown above deposed that there was no ill-treatment by the petitioner to Rani Hiriammanni prior to 26-3-1898, the date of the Magistrate's order and after this date Rani Hiriammanni was in the custody of her mother.

Therefore it is quite evident that the so-called memorials to the Government could not have been addressed by Rani Akkajammanni of her own volition. She was illiterate and was in her old age (80 years). Even if the memorials were presented by her, she must have done so knowing them to be a deliberate falsehood, or, without any knowledge of their contents and consequences just to please her daughter. The petitioner begs to state that

Rani

Rani Malligammanni, a sound literate lady, was in the habit of taking Srikaram Marks on false representations from her old mother Rani Akkajammanni to documents, the contents of which, Rani Akkajammanni was not aware of, as can be clearly seen from Rani Akkajammanni's deposition made before the 2nd General Assistant Commissioner and First Class Magistrate of Bangalore -vide Exhibit E.

A few days after the death of Rani Malligammanni in the year 1914, her daughter Rani Hiriammanni repented in the presence of respectable persons who were interested in her welfare, for her past actions for having yielded to the ill-advice of her mother Rani Malligammanni. She solicited the petitioner with repentent tears that she should be forgiven her past actions and that she should be given another opportunity to live with the petitioner as his wife. Accordingly the petitioner being moved with her entreaties forgave her past deeds in the presence of several respectable witnesses and resumed his former relationship with her as her husband until her death in the year 1916 at Bangalore City - vide Exhibit G.

Rani Akkajammanni (grandmother of the petitioner), the petitioner, Rani Hiriammanni (the petitioner's wife), and Rani Chennammanni (daughter of the petitioner's second wife) were all living together at Cottonpet, Bangalore City, for over a year when the petitioner's wife got suddenly ill. In spite of the efficient medical treatment at very great expense at the hands of Dr. Fernandes now residing in Coonoor, Mr.Rajagopala Mudaliar, retired Sub-Assistant Surgeon, Bangalore City, and other native physicians such as Messrs Nanjappa and Sivalingappa of Chikpet, Bangalore City, she succumbed to the disease.

The petitioner then removed her body in a motor car to Anekal for burial in the ancestral burial ground of the petitioner who performed all the religious ceremonies pertaining to his deceased wife. vide Exhibit H.

Rani Akkajammanni died at the petitioner's temporary residence at the village of Tyaaranadurgam on the 2nd October 1918 and the petitioner performed all the necessary ceremonies of the deceased old lady at great expense and he has been performing the anniversaries of both the aforesaid deceased ladies ever since.

Therefore it is quite plain from the above hard facts that there could be no ground for ill-treatment of the petitioner's wife as alleged in the memorials; that everything evil was only manoeuvred by Rani Malligammanni; that the petitioner and his wife Rani Hiriammanni were living as husband and wife soon after the death of Rani Malligammanni and that the spirit of the Government Proceedings was entirely maintained by the petitioner.

Therefore the petitioner most humbly prays that the State Pension of Rs 222-6-10 which is legally and morally due to the petitioner may be kindly ordered to be given to him with effect from its due date as he has been having very hard days and incurred heavy expense owing to various ceremonies of the deceased ladies, and that thereby the liberal policy of the Government in the matter of Pallegars' Pensions enunciated in Government Proceedings Dewan's Camp No.1678/29-10-1887 may be maintained.

For which act of generosity the petitioner shall ever feel grateful.

The Government of Mysore, BANGALORE.

The humble petition of Nanja Rayaru, the Poligar of Anekal, Bangalore District.

Most respectfully showeth:-

One Veerachikka Rayaru was the direct descendant of the Poligars of Anekal. He died without leaving male issue. His widow Rani Akkajiammanni adopted Chikka Rayaru in 1861. This adoption was fully recognised in Government Proceedings No. 6025-6/627, dated 5-2-1889 Bangalore, on the report of State Huzur Khajani Bukshy in his letter No. 10 dated 29-11-1888 Bangalore. The adopted son Chikka Rayaru died about 11 years ago. He left behind him four sons - (1) Veerachikka Rayaru, (2) Shankara Rayaru, (3) Nanja Rayaru, (4) Puttasamy Rayaru. Rani Akkajiammanni died on 2-10-1918. The second brother Shankara Rayaru died on 21-10-1918, leaving behind him three daughters.

After the death of Veerachikka Rayaru, the family pension was registered in the name of Rani Akkajiammanni. She was enjoying the pension of Rs 222-6-2 till her death in 2-10-1918. The ancestral immoveable and moveable properties were divided into four equal portions by a registered partition deed among the four brothers in the life time of the late Rani Akkajiammanni.

While recognising the adoption of late Chikka Rayaru in G.P. No. 6925-6/627 dated 5-2-1889, the Government refused to disturb the pension during her life time. The sons of the adopted son according to the Hindu Law are entitled to divide the said pension and enjoy it separately. The Government of Lysore in G.P. Camp No. 1678 dated 29th October 1887 have laid down that the fundamental principles of the Hindu Law should be strictly adhered to in regard to the questions of pensions of Poligars in the Mysore State. There is absolutely no custom prevailing in the family of Anekal Poligars, recognising the primogeniture. On the other hand, the equal division of the ancestral family properties into four shares among the then four living brothers clearly establishes the absence of primogeniture and the prevailance of the ordinary Hindu Law. A similar question cropped up in the case of Hoalvadi Poligars. The Government N.P.P. 53-4 dated 24-11-1903 have ordered the equal division of pension among three brothers and separate registry thereo vide appendex A.

The petitioner therefore humbly prays that the Government of Mysore may be pleased to order that the above pension of Rs. 222-6-2 of the Anekal Poligar family may be divided into four equal shares among the 4 sons of late Chikkarayam and registered separately, for which act of kindness your humble petitioner ever prays.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Read:-

Government Proceedings No. P-P-118-19 dated 28th January 1904, directing the disbursements to Sugandharaj and Chenniveeraj of the Hagalvadi Poilegar family, arrears of pension for 6 months at ₹ 80/- each out of their family pension, registered in the name of their elder brother Basavalingaraj, pending final orders regarding its division among the three brothers.

Also:-

The Government Proceedings No. P-P-53-4 of the 24th November 1903 sanctioning a maintenance allowance of ₹ 30/- per mensem in the name of Devammajee, stepmother of Basavalingaraj, out of the pension of ₹ 270/- per mensem registered in his name.

ORDER thereon:- No. 139/40 dated 7th March 1904

Deducting the maintenance allowance of ₹ 30/- a month granted to Devammajee in Government Proceedings of the 24th November 1903 read above a pension of ₹ 240/- per mens is now enjoyed by Basavalingaraj, for the support of himself and his two brothers Sugandaraj and Chennaveeraraj. The latter have petitioned this office complaining that their brother has not been paying their shares and praying for the division of the pension equally among the three brothers. All the brothers who were given a hearing before the Dewan also represent that Devammajee referred to above is not in need of any help out of the family pension and request that the maintenance allowance granted granted to her may be added to their respective shares.

On a careful consideration of the case, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to direct that pending further investigation on the petitioners' allegation about Devammajee's circumstances in life the orders already passed shall be duly enforced and that the balance of the pension of Basavalingaraj, after deducting the maintenance allowance due to Devammajee, be equally divided among the three brothers, Basavalingraj, Sugandaraj and Chennaveeraraj, and registered separately in their names.

Opportunity must be availed of by the Officer in charge, State Huzur Treasury to impress upon these pensioners that the continuance of the pension will depend upon their good conduct and respectability and that they must try to improve themselves by education and other ways.

The Huzur Treasury Officer must also use his influence to bring all such stipendiaries to a sense of what is expected of them so as to educate their children and to train them up for some profession or other.
